
NordPhil 2016

Call for papers

In April 2016, the second annual Nordic BA & MA conference in philosophy takes place in Uppsala, Sweden. 10 BA & MA students of philosophy in the Nordic countries will be invited to give a talk on a philosophical topic of their own choosing. Professor Anna-Sofia Maurin (University of Gothenburg) is the keynote speaker of the conference.

We encourage everyone who is interested in philosophy – members of the general public, students and faculty members – to attend the conference, listen to talks and engage in philosophical discussions with the other participants.
